

Theodore Robinson (American, 1852-1896)

On the Tow-Path – A Halt*, 1893-94

Oil

Acquired with Funds Provided by the Horace G. Fralin
Charitable Trust, 2002.003

American Impressionist Theodore Robinson was born in Irasburg, Vermont and studied at the National Academy of Design, and later at the Art Students League. He made a number of visits to France and became a close friend of French impressionist painter Claude Monet. Best known for his landscape paintings, as well as genre paintings of village and farm life, Robinson had numerous exhibitions both abroad and in the United States.